BUTLER UNIVERSITY

a cover story

Founded in 1855 by attorney and abolitionist Ovid Butler, Butler University today occupies 20 buildings on 290 acres in the Butler-Tarkington neighborhood of Indianapolis. The University encompasses five colleges and emphasizes a liberal arts-based education. Faculty work closely with students both inside and outside the classroom as part of our active student learning approach.

A yearbook is meant to document one year of a school's history. But this year, we are doing things differently. Instead of documenting the school, this book will be capturing the moments of what makes Butler: the students. Instead of just names, and dates, there are people and emotions. This book is put together like a magazine to help hold the memories from Butler and treasure them forever. This book is meant to show the Life and Times of Butler University students.

Butler Hires Fong as 20th President

Butler University hired Dr. Bobby Fong as the 20th president of the university in early June of 2001. Fong, a member of the Association of American Colleges, Society for Values in Higher Education, Phi Beta Kappa, and Phi Kappa Phi, is a graduate of Harvard University with a Ph.D. from UCLA.

Fong began his instructing career at Berea College in Berea, Kentucky, and his path led him to teach at Hope College, Hamilton College, and the University of Kentucky. Fong's accomplishments also include editing The Complete Works Of Oscar Wilde and contributing to such publications as Christianity and Culture in the Crossfire and Faculty Assessment of Student Learning.

Fong began his presidency with goals for monetary issues, involvement with students and overall university performance.

HOMECOMING

Monday: Homecoming shirts went on sale.

Tuesday: A midnight snack including (doughnuts and pizza) was served to those Butler students lucky enough to get to Atherton Union on time. Voting for Homecoming King and Queen also started today.

Wednesday: The Kappa Kickoff sponsored by Kappa Kappa Gamma, took place today with Sigma Chi and Kappa Alpha Theta winning the tournament. There was also a cookout serving Jimmy John's subs.

Thursday: Remember the Titans was shown in the Reilly Room to pep up the students and team for Saturday's big game.

Friday: At 4:00, the dedication ceremony for the new Fairbanks Center for Communication began. Students, as well as alumni from all over the country came to help open Butler's new academic building. At 6:00, the Homecoming Parade started at Fairbanks, continued through campus, and ended at Holcomb Observatory. Following the parade was a bonfire, pep rally, and fireworks. Following this, Clowes Hall held a free concert featuring the band O.A.R.

Saturday: A Butler tailgate party was held in the parking lot of Hinkle Fieldhouse from 11:00 til 1:00. Local Band Dog Talk played and the Bulldog Beauty contest also took place during the tailgate party. The Homecoming Game started at 1:00 in the Butler Bowl. The Bulldogs played the Duquesne Dukes.

Talent, hard work lead to a successful season

The 2001 women's volleyball team

As students on campus were just beginning to prepare for classes, the Butler Volleyball team was busy practicing for the 2001 season. This year's squad, consisting of seven returning starters from the 2000 squad and seven incoming freshmen, was led by head coach Sharon Clark and assistant coach Jen Kintzel.

"This year, teams were concerned with our returners, but we also had a great group of newcomers who were contributing at key positions for us [also]," coach Kintzel said.

The regular season kicked off at the annual Doubletree/Butler Invitational. The team took a first place finish and set the tone for the rest of the season, during which the team ran off a streak of seven straight wins at Hinkle Fieldhouse. The Bulldogs finished out the year with a record of 12-13, and the 6-8 record earned them a fourth place finish in the Horizon League.

—Lindsay Martin

Alison Cox

The senior elementary education major is on the last four volleyball seasons as an All-Star for the Bulldogs. Cox's senior season was highlighted by performances such as recording her 100th career kill in Butler's five-game victory over IPFW and a 20-kill-20 dig performance on Goshawk versus IPFW. For her collegiate career, Cox recorded 318 total kills for the season, averaging 3.25 kills per game after playing 97 total games.

Keely Norris

The 6'1" junior elementary education major averaged 3.41 kills per game, enough to rank first on the team. She also ranked second among the Bulldogs in blocks per game and third on defense. Norris was named as a member of the 2001 DoubleTree/Butler Invitational All-Tournament team, in addition to being named to all-conference second team last season. Norris ended her junior season with 225 total kills in 97 games played.

Touchdown!

Bulldogs come out even to end the season

Butler football caused a big stir on campus as the team broke even with 5 wins and 5 losses, a three win improvement over the 2000 campaign.

"The highlights of the season have obviously been the wins, especially the wins over the teams we lost to last year," coach Ken LaRose said.

Since the beginning of the season, the emphasis was on improving the defense. The hard work and determination certainly paid off. The Bulldog defense led the team to several key victories; however, the offense was not to be ignored. Most notably was a win over Quincy University in early November.

The offense, led by senior quarterback DeWayne Ewing, ended the year with 1656 passing yards, 12 touchdown passes, a 59.1 % passing completion percentage, and completed 287 plays.

The team featured ten returning starters on defense and eighteen seniors, so experience played an important role in the team's success this season.

"These guys never gave up. They found a way to win," said LaRose.

DeWayne Ewing

FOOTBALL

The senior Biology major from Kokomo, Indiana quickly became known as a record-breaker on the Butler campus. This season alone, the three-year starting quarterback threw for 1656 yards. Ewing tied Butler's single game record by throwing five touchdown passes in a victory over Quincy. Soon after, he became the first player in Butler and PFL history to throw for more than 2,000 yards, finishing his four-year stint with 8,941 career passing yards. Ewing was chosen as Pioneer Football League Offensive Player of the Week twice this season.

Nick Ober

The linebacker from Cincinnati, Ohio, wowed fans this year with his amazing skills. The senior finance major was a three-year starter, who at the beginning of this season was described as one of the top returning defensive starters in the Pioneer Football League. He only reinforced that description as Ober ended his last season at Butler with a total of 60 tackles, one sack, and one fumble recovery. "He's a tough player who goes out there every game looking to contribute," said coach LaRose.

MEN'S & WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

A race to the nationals

Running eighty to a hundred miles a week, lifting in the weight rooms, and staying in shape over the summer, the men's cross-country team was rewarded by a successful season. The 14 men from around the globe would persevere through the numerous invitations and conferences by forming a true team. Their ultimate goal of the attending nationals would be met.

The early meet of the Illini Invitational led the men to a fourth place finish. Senior Justin Young would place first out of the one hundred and fifty two field. His time of 24:05 in the 8k was a personal record. Junior Marty Fedmowski placed ninth and senior Richard Vint finished nineteenth.

Mid-season, the men placed fifth out of the 18 teams participating in the Notre Dame Invite. Fedmowski, Young, junior Brad Bennett, sophomore Brian Dunn, and sophomore Philip Yoder would make up the team's "top five" in the competition. The team was named eighth in the Great Lakes Region Poll.

A fourth straight conference title was won at the Horizon League Championship in Chicago. The bulldogs finished in a cutthroat tie with their main competitor, Loyola.

After running in the Great Lakes Regional meet, the men knew it would be another close call as to whether they would advance or not. However, an official announcement was made, speculations turned out to be wrong, and six runners would advance to nationals. Key to the success were solid finishes run by Bennett, Vint, and Dunn.

The final championship in Greenville, South Carolina, would close out the season with bulldog pride, as the men finished twenty-third out of a 31 team field. All six runners posted faster times than in regional meet. Young placed fifty-second, followed by Fedmowski, Vint, Bennett, Dunn, and sophomore Tim Owen.

Men's SOCCER

Goals Saved and Accomplished

After a somewhat rocky start, the 2001 mens soccer team went on to produce a record-setting season (11-9-0). Under direction of first-year head coach Joe Sochacki as captain, the team forged their way to Butler's fourth-ever Horizon League Championship. The team upset number-one seeded UW-Milwaukee in the championship game.

Before the end of the season, the Dawgs were on a four-game winning streak, sitting on top of the conference and continuing into the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship for the fourth time in Butler history. Even though Michigan State squeaked by with a 2-1 victory in the first round of the tournament, this year's season proved how tough the Bulldogs were willing to fight.

Coach Sochacki hoped that this year gave valuable experience to the team, which will be losing five seniors. "They will be better prepared for next time," said Sochacki.

Evan Mitz

Mitz, a freshman midfielder from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, contributed to the team by pushing everyone else to play harder at practice. The bid into the NCAA tournament at the end of the year made him "very hopeful for next season," and he believed that the team would "only get better from here."

Nick Pantazi

SOCCER

As a junior forward from St. Louis, MI, Pantazi was named an All-Horizon League player on the first team. Pantazi finished the season as the Dawgs' leading scorer; he tied the school single season record for goals with 19 and points with 43. He is also second on Butler's record list for the most shots in a single season, tearing up the field with 76. After the first round loss at the NCAA tournament, Pantazi was still excited for next season. "[We hope to] turn this program into a national power like it deserves to be."

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Jaw Dropping Performance

Sweating out an impressive record of 13-7, the 2001 women's soccer team boasts a new school record for most wins in a season, surpassing the previous record of twelve earned in 1996 and 1997. Within reach, the team stood on the brink of the program's first ever NCAA tournament bid. After a grueling, championship game against UW-Milwaukee, the season ended for Butler in the third-overtime defeat against the Panthers. Some of the pre-season goals were indeed accomplished, including the new record for most wins in a season. A well-balanced team helped place six players on the All-League teams. Junior Amy Morrison also stamped her name in the record books by tying former Bulldog Chris Johnson's feat of 37 points and 13 assists in a single season. Even with the painful loss of three seniors, next year's team has an inspiring past on which to hold.

—Kim Huck

Amy Morrison

Morrison, junior forward from Plano, Texas, carried a leadership role along with the other juniors and seniors. She was also named to the 1st team as an All-Horizon League Player. The success of the season left her more motivated to play soccer than she ever before. She said, "It is fun when you are out on the field playing the game you love. You can't help but smile. That's what I love best."

Martha Gudiel

Gudiel is a junior forward from Redwood City, California. She has the team's second-highest shot percentage at .303%. Gudiel also helped the Lady Dawgs by leading them in game-winning goals and helping largely with six assists for the season.

Team breaks records, makes school history

Butler (26-6, 12-4 Horizon League) closed out its 2001-02 campaign at Syracuse, N.Y., in the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament, but not before compiling the finest basketball season in school history. The Bulldogs broke the school single season record for victories for the third consecutive year and became the first team in Butler history to record three championships (Horizon League, Top of the World Classic, Hoosier Classic) in the same season. Butler had wins over Big Ten champ and Final Four team Indiana, Purdue and Ball State, when it was ranked #21 in the nation. The Bulldogs also became the first team in school history to post both preseason and post-season tournament wins. Butler is the first team in the 23-year history of the Horizon League to post six consecutive 20-win seasons.

Key Players

Thomas Jackson

Jackson, who helped lead Butler's men's basketball team to four consecutive 20-win seasons and four straight post-season tournament appearances, was named a co-winner of Butler's Outstanding Male Athlete award. He finished his Butler career as the Bulldogs' all-time leader in both assists and steals, and he became the first player in Butler basketball history to record both 1,000 career points and 500 career assists. He was a two-time all-conference performer, and he was named Butler's most valuable player this season.

Brandon Miller

Miller, a junior, was the third-leading scorer on Butler's successful men's basketball team. The New Castle, Indiana point guard led the Bulldogs in three-point field goals, finished second on the team in assists, had 20 double-figure scoring performances, and was named CBS "Player of the Game" after scoring a team-high 18 points in Butler's opening-round win over #23 Wake Forest in the NCAA Tournament.

Ryan Hainje

Hainje, senior, was named to the MCC All-Defensive Team, earned a spot on the MCC All-Tournament team, became the first player since 1997-98 to lead Butler in scoring in three consecutive games, first Butler player since '97-98 to post back-to-back 20-point performances, led the Bulldogs with five 20-point efforts, finished second on the team in rebounding and field goal shooting, and ranked fifth in the conference in field goal shooting, scored in double-figures in 16 games.

Teams take to the water

The Butler men's and women's swimming teams concluded their 2001-02 season this past weekend (Feb. 28-Mar. 2) at the 2002 Horizon League Championships in Chicago. The Butler women's team finished in fifth place with 267 points, while the men's team took home a sixth-place finish with 245 points. Wright State won the women's competition with a total of 755.50 points, while UW-Green Bay took home the top prize on the men's side with 722 points. Illinois-Chicago played the host for this year's championships.

Senior Brett Balhoff captured a pair of top ten finishes at the championships. The Monclova, Ohio product placed seventh in the 1650 Freestyle in a time of 16:36.48. He also placed seventh in the 400 IM in a time of 4:10.27.

Senior James Grimmer placed tenth in the 200 Freestyle in a time of 1:45.22...senior Melinda Harrauld took home an eighth place finish in the 100 Backstroke with a time of 1:09.75...junior John Allan placed fifth in the 100 Breaststroke at 59.37...sophomore Catie Scott tallied a tenth place finish in the 100 Freestyle at 54.95, touching the wall just ahead of teammate Anna Pecharich...freshman Carlton Racette recorded a ninth place finish in the 200 Butterfly with a time of 1:58.39.

Sophomore Erin McPeak took home Butler's top finish of the weekend by placing second in the 200 Butterfly in a time of 2:09.38, giving her team 17 points. Also placing in the top five of the race were teammates Anna Pecharich (3rd - 2:11.70) and Jesse Levknecht (5th - 2:12.09). Levknecht also recorded two other top ten finishes by placing sixth in the 100 Butterfly (1:00.29) and eighth in the 100 Backstroke (1:01.32).

PROFESSORS

The 2001 Butler University Bulletin expresses the importance of the institution's professors to uphold the overall goals and expectations of the university. "Butler's mission is to provide the highest quality of education...built upon interactive dialogue and inquiry among faculty and students" (Bulletin). Butler history and statistics show a growth from the two professors during the founding in 1855 to the collaboration of 243 current full-time instructors. The favorable student to faculty ratio of 13 to 1 provides small class sizes, which attract many Butler students. The Butler University Bulletin goes on to state the act of "recruiting and sustaining practicing scholars and professional dedicated to intellectual self-renewal for the benefit of their students" (Bulletin). Eighty-one percent of this school year's professors held the highest degree in their fields. Along with instructing courses, professors engage in research or may also hold the position of departmental head. Butler also employs a number of adjuncts from around the community. Adjuncts provide diversity and various experience to the cohort of professors.

WHO IS YOUR FAVORITE PROFESSOR?

Hema Ramanathan

"She is an incredible asset to all, especially night owls such as myself when she promptly responds to 2 a.m. emails from worried students who are preparing to teach the next day"- Briana Jury, senior Education major in college of Education

Robert Padgett

"Robert Padgett always finds time to help students grasp the concepts in his classes. He makes statistics as fun as possible, and he doesn't forget the value of a good laugh." - Linda Heiden, junior psychology major in college of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Marv Recht

"Marv Recht has helped and supported so many students through his time at Butler. His "Lifetime Guarantee" is truly unmatched!" - Margaret Goatley, senior Marketing major in college of Business

CVS/pharmacy

— a proud partner of Butler University College of Pharmacy

With over 4,100 locations across the country, your options are limitless. At CVS/pharmacy, we care about you...and we respect the personal investments - the time, the caring, and the effort - you have made to pursue a meaningful career that touches so many lives. You'll find that our supportive culture and strong values create an environment where you can make your education work for you.

CVS/pharmacy encourages you to consider a career with the leader. We seek compassionate graduates who have the ability to listen and counsel patients on their healthcare needs.

Our CVS Value Proposition for Pharmacists will provide you with both personal and professional rewards that recognize your commitment to your patients and to CVS. And our commitment to you further includes an outstanding compensation and benefits package. Visit www.cvs.com to learn more. For consideration, please send your resume to: Joyce Collins, R.Ph., Pharmacy Human Resources Manager, CVS/pharmacy, 2800 Enterprise Street, Indianapolis, IN 46219. Ph: 317-351-3024, Fax: 317-351-3074 or E-mail: JHCollins@cvs.com. An equal opportunity employer.

CVS/pharmacy

Pharmacy driven. Care centered. People focused.

You went to school to be a health care professional who can influence clinical decisions.

The heart and science of health and healing

Come join an organization where you can use that knowledge to make a difference in patients' lives.

At Wishard Memorial Hospital, our pharmacists participate in decentralized clinical activities, therapeutic drug monitoring, evaluation of orders, recommendation of changes based on disease state; and ambulatory pharmacy settings. Because we are a teaching hospital affiliated with the I.U. School of Medicine, they are partners in educating other health care providers through professional interaction. In turn, we support them with up-to-date data and continuing education.

Come talk to us about our excellent benefit package, including three week paid vacation and 100% tuition reimbursement for eligible positions.

Please contact: Wishard Health Services, Attn: Christy Carter or Travia Davis-Williams, Recruitment Office, 1001 West 10th Street, Indianapolis, IN 46202. Phone: (317) 630-6064; Fax: (317) 630-2419. Visit our website: www.wishard.edu. Diversity is a hallmark of our past, present and future; an Equal Opportunity Employer.

To deliver quality patient care. To meet the demands of your own busy life.

PHARMACISTS

As a pharmacy, we respect our patients' time by providing personalized care and unparalleled convenience. As an employer, our cutting-edge technology and FTEB certified techs buy you time with patients. Time to practice what you were trained for in a friendly, diverse work environment.

And chances are, our wide variety of scheduling options—from FT to non-traditional FT and PRN—will most likely fit the work hours you need. And long-term, you can use time to make your money work harder and smarter by participating in our innovative stock option/stock purchase plan—giving you and your family a sounder financial future.

Make your time go farther.

Join the pharmacy built and run by pharmacists.

Please forward your resume to: Walgreen Co., Personnel Recruitment Department, 200 Wilmot Rd., #2190, Deerfield, IL 60015-4616. Fax: 1-888-556-7417. E-mail: pharmacy@walgreens.com

WILLIAMS

WHERE ARE YOU GOING...

...to go after graduation

...to live

...to work

...to be five years from now?

While we can't tell you the answers to these questions we can tell you about being an industry leader in energy and communications and the great benefits we give our employees. But that alone won't distinguish the road to Williams from other corporations. Where we came from, where we're going and what we stand for places Williams above the rest. It's up to you to decide if you want to be a part of our adventure.

We're known as a company that offers employees opportunities to contribute, earn recognition, grow and succeed. We believe that's because we value the diversity and individuality of our employees and encourage their professional development and community involvement.

We are actively looking for people with degrees in Engineering, MIS, Computer Science and Business. If you're interested in a challenging career with great rewards, make your Destination Williams.
